ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the Joint Motion to Continue and Exclude Time Under the Speedy Trial Act filed by the parties on December 16, 2021. (ECF No. 58.) For the reasons stated herein, the Court will grant the motion. The time to try this case is extended up to and including April 25, 2022.

In the motion, the parties state that Patel continues to wait for a credible fear interview to be scheduled in his immigration matter. (ECF No. 58 at 2.) As such, they jointly move for a continuance of the trial date of January 10, 2021, so that Patel may present his case for asylum during his credible fear interview. Id. The parties further state that they “still believe that the case will be resolved short of a trial as stated in previous filings.”¹ Id.

While the Speedy Trial Act requires that defendants be tried within seventy days of indictment, the Court specifically finds that extending this period would be in the best interest of justice. Here, an extension of time is necessary to allow Patel time to complete the asylum application process, which may affect the outcome of this matter.

Consistent with this concern, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit has recognized that “whether or not a case is ‘unusual’ or ‘complex,’ an ‘ends of justice’ continuance may in appropriate circumstances be granted.” United States v. Fields, 39 F.3d 439, 444 (3d Cir. 1994); cf. United States v. Dota, 33 F.3d 1179 (9th Cir. 1994) (“An ends of justice continuance may be justified on grounds that one side needs more time to prepare for trial [even if the] case [i]s not ‘complex.’”); United States v. Lattany, 982 F.2d 866, 883 (3d Cir. 1992) ("[T]he district court did not abuse its discretion when it delayed the trial to give counsel . . . opportunity to . . . decid[e] upon and prepar[e] an appropriate defense."); United States v. Fields, 39 F.3d 439, 444 (3d Cir. 1994) (finding that the district court had properly granted an "ends of justice" continuance to "permit plea negotiations to continue").
